
Tell A Vision

Maryam Bey, Host/CEO

maryambey18@msn.com
<https://tellavisiontav.com>

Councilwoman Bessie Walker hired Maryam as a Legislative Aide 2002. 2004 she placed Maryam in charge of her reentry program. 2006 Maryam was hired at a halfway house in Newark, NJ, the next 8 years she worked as an Employment Counselor, Career Counselor and Case Manager at various correctional facilities. 2014 she was hired by Mayor Ras Baraka to work with reentry clients as a Reentry Coordinator and Reentry Manager. Her skills and experiences and education allowed Maryam to become a successful Reentry Specialist. Maryam is the author of “Broken Spirit Let It Go So You Can Grow”. A book she wrote 2019 about her experiences working in the prison system and owning a school. 2022, Maryam won a writing contest, her title “Experience is The Best Teacher”.

In 2016, Maryam created “Tell A Vision, LLC”, a TV show that is a platform for Returning Citizens from prison or justice involved who are now testimonies of success. Tell A Vision is a platform to tell their stories of incarceration, domestic violence, mental health and a life of crime.

Tell A Vision, LLC Public Speaking Firm provide inspirational topics encouraging participants to reach their highest potential and become the person they are destined to be. Our team speak at schools, colleges, and Faith Based Institutes. Tell A Vision’s Team are successful former returning citizens. Our topics are transformative, we provide sessions that are uplifting. Topics include but not limited to: • After Incarceration • Women’s Mental Health • Domestic Violence • Gang Violence Prevention • Education • Personal Responsibility • No Excuses • Attitude Is Everything • Power of the Hustle • Entrepreneurship • How To Improve Your Credit Score * How to Win and Parenting after incarceration.

Maryam Bey now understands that this is God’s Plan for her life. Her life experiences encourages, inspires, empowers individuals to stay filled with hope and know when they put the work in, take responsibility for their actions and not make excuses they will be successful because they are not defined by their past, their past prepared them for their purpose. Maryam encouraged inmates to appreciate their past and do not be defined by what people say or think of them. Maryam encouraged Creative Garden students to realize there is greatness in them and they are winners. www.maryambey.com. Maryam’s journey began when she founded Creative Garden Daycare Center in 1975. She dropped out of high school. Maryam had no idea God had a plan for her life. From 1975 to 1985 Creative Garden Daycare Center flourished and expanded into an elementary school to the 5th grade. Maryam obtained two degrees from Saint Peter's University. Maryam served as Newark Schools Board member and Board President. She founded Parent Notebook TV Show a platform for parents to express their concerns about their children's education and parent activism.

Maryam knew for sure were it not for her "life experiences", she would not be prepared for the work she is doing today. Maryam's philosophy is "Our experiences prepare us for our purpose. Don't be embarrassed about your experiences". She was prepared, rewarded, and inspired by God to serve those who are the most vulnerable because Experience is the Best Teacher.